HEROPEN LAND SHOES. MONDAY EVENING JANUARY 27

A VIRGINIA ARTIST -Among the "notes on art" in the New York Herald of yest: rlay, the following mention is made of a new picture by Mr. William Washington, a young gentle man of distinguished talents, formerly residing in Warrenton, and well-known to many readers of the Gazette: "Mr. Washing on has nearly completed another church interior-'A Bap tism in Grace Church.' The light that stream through the colored windows, the gay dre-seof ladies and children, the architectural be au ties of this most pictur, sque of our New York churches, the babe, its moth r, father, grandmother and nurse, the faithful portrait of Rev Dr. Morgan, and, briefly, all the accessories of the scene, are admirably rendered."

SUDDEN DEATH IN CHURCH. - In the Foundry Church in Washington, yesterday, as the pastor, Rev. Peyton Brown, was about finishing his discourse, some excitement was occasi ned by a lady failing from her seat in one of the pews near the pulpit. It was found to be Mrs. Wigfield, who resided on G street, near Thirteenth, and on raising her she was perfecty helpless, and some gentlemen carried her ap parently lifeless body out of the church. On the way to the vestibu'e below stairs she appeared to revive, but suddenly sank back and expired. The excitement was such that Mr. Brown suspended his remarks until he was informed of the death of the lady, and then, in appropriate language, made the sad aunouncement of the death of Mrs. Wigfield, w.o, we understand. was an estimab'e member of the church in which she so suddenly died .- Nat Int.

CO OPERATIVE BUILDING ASSOCIATION. A meeting for the purpose of forming a Cooperative Building Association was held on Saturday night last, at the Assembly Rooms, which was well attended, nearly all branches of trade and industry being represented. Hiram O Claughton was called to the cirair, and after some consultation as to the best method of ar riving at some means of definite action, a com mittee consisting of Messra: John W. Green, W. F. Vincent, Geo Y. Worthington, H. C. Slaymaker and John D. Smon, was appointed to prepare and draft a suitable plan for the organization of an association such as de-ired; when the meeting adjourne I un il We laesday eve ing next, at 7 o'clock.

RIVER NEWS. - The ice in the river is now broken into small fragments, an lis being drifted up and down with the tiles. If the presect weather continues it will have disappeared wheat 2830; rye, 540; oats, 550; buckwheat, 65 bushels; beans, 25 bushels; corn meal, 100 bushels; dried fruit, 2050 lbs; honey, 50 lbs; buckwheat flour, 590 lbs; flour, 358 bbls; spokes, ing The night trips on the Aq iia Creek line will be resumed to night. A pungy boat, loaded with oysters, sailed by this city yesterday evening, bound to Washington, and there are several more vessels of the same description between this city and Fort Washington, that will come up on the next tide. The Maryland ferry is still kept open by Captain Griffin's row-

FRIENDSHIP'S FAIR. - The ladies fair for the benefit of the Friendship Fire Company, will be opened this evening in the Assembly Rooms, corner of King and Royal streets. The rooms have been handsomely and tastefully decorated, and the articles on exhibition are toth useful and beautiful, and among which, as specially worthy of notice, is mentioned a tippet, made by Miss Harriet Butts, from the feathers of a guinea fowl, and presented by her to Mrs. Herrick, President of the managers, as a contribution to the fair. The edibles prepared for the festival will speak for themselves.

GOLD VS. GREENBACKS. - The Washington Star says:-" Among the many interesting and important cases now before the Supreme Court is that of Willard vs. Tayloe. In 1854 Mr. Tayloe agreed to convey to Mr. Willard, at any time during the coming ten years, the building known as the "Mansion House," ad jacent to Willard's Hotel, for a specified sum. After the breaking out of the war, Mr. Wil lard declared his readiness to accept the proffered terms, and tendered his first nayment in greenbacks. Mr. Taylor demanded gold, and Mr. Willard now seeks to hold him to the performance of his contract, on the ground that greenbacks are a legal tender.

THE CHARITY TABLEAUX.—The series of tableaux vivant, exhibited by some of the charitably disposed ladies and gentlemen of this city for the benefit of the poor, terminated on Saturday night last, with the production of a programme, that exceeded in attraction that of any previous evening. The whole affair has proved an eminent success. The pictures exhibited were beautiful, the acting was remarkably perfect, and the pecuniary realization fully equalled the anticipated receipts.

SUPREME COURT OF APPEALS.—The follow ing cases were argued and submitted on Saturday last in the Supreme Court of Appeals for the State of Virginia, now in session in Richmond: Matthews vs. the Commonwealth, and Gardner vs. the same-murder cases and appeals from the decision of the Circuit Court of Fairfax county : Braughton vs. Cofer-anjappeal from a decision readered before the war by Judge Tyler. Messrs Brent and Dulany appeared as counsel in these cases.

ALEXANDRIANS IN LIMBO. - The Richmond Enquirer of this morning says "that on Satur day last, two closely-cropped, dirty, mean look ing specimens of humanity, answering to the whole half and quarter boxes; Mince Meat, Smith, and hailing from Alexandria, were brought before Mayor Mayo, having to answer for being disorderly in the streets. They were sent to the chain gang for thirty days."

THE 'PULPIT question," which some time ago was the subject of much discussion among the congregation of Christ Church, has been settled quietly. The old pulpit has been removed, and a desk in the chancel substituted. It was a sort of coup d'etat, executed without disturbance, and, we hear, the "contents" are satisfied, and the "non contents," not disposed to make any difficulties.

PERSONAL - Capt. F. R. Windsor has just eturned from his plantation to Mississippi, and represents affairs in that State as in a most distressing condition. Splendid lands at lose d sales bring comparatively nothing, and the left there, of four excellent mules, for $12.

Expenditures for Wood, - The Mayor has expended up to this date in the purchase of wood for the poor of this city, three hundred and eighty dollars, two hundred and eighty of which were derived from the charity concert given last fall, and one hundred from an appropriation by the City Council. The wood fund has been exhausted, and alle charitably disposed have now an opportunity of replent he ing it by their contributions.

Sour House .- Since the last reported cont ibutions to the city charity Soup Hous , Col. Lee Las sent there four hundred and fitty pounds of beet, a friend a half a cord of wood, and a friend one bushel of meal. Without another appropriation is made by the City Council, or a great increase in private contributions immediately ensues, the Soup House will be closed within a few days.

VICTIMIZERS VITIMIZED. - Information has been received at police headquarters, and the proper measures taken to bring the offenders to justice, of certain parties who have lately been in the habit of buying liquor from dealers in that article who are without the proper licenses, and afterwards levying black mail from them in consideration of keeping quiet.

BRICKLAYERS ASSOCIATION. - A meeting of the bricklayers in the city will be held to morrow night, as can be seen by an advertisement in a other column of to-day's Gazette, for the purpose of organizing a Bricklayers Union.

BASKET FOUND. - Louis Boswell found on Saturday night last a new market basket lying in a gutter on Royal street, which he delivered to officer Webster, from whom it can be obtained

MURDER TRIAL. - The trial of Heary Johnson, for the murder of Thomas Smoot, of this city, will commence in the Washington Criminal Court on Wednesday next.

WATCH HOUSE. - There were but two lodgers at the Watch House, lastnight one from Fairfax county, Virginia, and the other bailing from Belgin m
